

Articulation Agreement between
Fayetteville Technical Community College
And
Franklin University

Whereas, Fayetteville Technical Community College and Franklin University share a learner-centered and community-oriented approach to higher education,

Whereas, they share a common desire to create a seamless transition for the Fayetteville Technical Community College graduates seeking a Franklin University Bachelor of Science degree that articulates well with programs offered at Fayetteville Technical Community College,

Whereas, the two institutions seek to use current technology to enhance the educational options for time and/or place bound working adults,

Fayetteville Technical Community College and Franklin University hereby enter into an Articulation Agreement designed to affect the above stated aims in a manner that will provide the participating student with a quality Bachelor's degree completion program.

Fayetteville Technical Community College and Franklin University have developed this Articulation Agreement to allow students and graduates of Fayetteville Technical Community College to complete a Bachelor of Science degree from Franklin University's distance-education, degree-completion program. Students must complete a minimum of 40 credit-hours from Franklin University.

This Articulation Agreement states the conditions under which Franklin University will accept and apply credits from Fayetteville Technical Community College. Transfer Guides, developed specifically for Fayetteville Technical Community College, list the courses students and graduates are to complete at the community college in order to maximize transfer.

Fayetteville Technical Community College students planning to complete their Bachelor's degree at Franklin University may apply to Franklin University at any time during their enrollment at Fayetteville Technical Community College.

Franklin University encourages students to complete their Associate's degree at the community college before transfer. The student who successfully completes an Associate's degree from Fayetteville Technical Community College will be accepted into Franklin University's degree-completion program. Franklin University will apply the Associate's degree coursework as described in this Articulation Agreement and listed on the Transfer Guide. The student who has not completed an Associate's degree but has 60 or more semester hours of college coursework and a Fayetteville Technical Community College cumulative GPA of 2.5 or better will be accepted into the Franklin University degree-completion program. Franklin University encourages students to complete their Associate's degree at the community college before transfer.

Students may concurrently take courses at both institutions. Each institution will provide student services for students enrolled at that institution. Franklin University will enter into a consortium agreement with Fayetteville Technical Community College that will allow students to take courses concurrently from both institutions during a given academic term and maintain eligibility for federal financial aid for all applicable coursework.

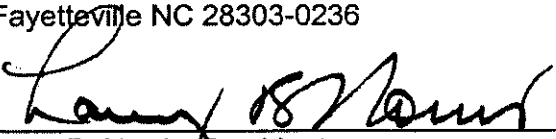

Fayetteville Technical Community College and Franklin University will work together to provide students with accurate and timely transfer information and academic advising relative to Franklin University's degree-completion program. Franklin University will provide appropriate brochures and informational material to Fayetteville Technical Community College and its students.

Fayetteville Technical Community College agrees to notify Franklin University annually of changes and additions to its curriculum, so that the Transfer Guides can be revised as necessary.

The respective designees at both institutions will monitor and report on the status of the Articulation Agreement. Either party may terminate this agreement by giving a notice to the other institution at least six months prior to the date on which action would be taken. Such a notice will specify the nature of the action contemplated and the rationale for such action. In the event the program is discontinued, Franklin University and Fayetteville Technical Community College will continue to provide the educational program and student services during a phase-out period of up to 24 months or until the last active student completes the program.

Franklin University, located in Columbus Ohio, is a member of the eArmyU program offering degrees at a distance for the US Army. Franklin University has developed a plan to offer students an opportunity to apply their associate degree to a Bachelor's degree. This articulation is open to all FTCC students and graduates.

Franklin has proposed an agreement with FTCC leading to seven (7) Bachelor's degrees. A copy of each degree map is attached. The total degree requirement at Franklin is 124 semester hours. A minimum of 40 hours must be taken with Franklin. This means that FTCC students can complete their associate degree and additional hours at FTCC toward their Bachelor's degree. This will range from 8 to 23 hours depending on the AAS degree hours.

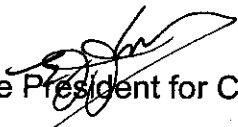

The appropriate Dean and Divisional/Department Chair have reviewed each of the proposed degree maps. Their recommendation is that FTCC enter into this articulation agreement with Franklin University.

Request your signature on the articulation agreement as indicated.
