The Secondary Education Program

The Secondary Education program leads to a Michigan Secondary Provisional Teaching Certificate for teaching in grades 6-12. Some majors lead to K-12 certification and are attached to the Secondary Provisional Teaching Certificate. These majors include Dance Education, Physical Education (Kinesiology Pedagogy), Music Education and Visual Arts Education.

The program for Secondary Education consists of University General Education Requirements (Competency Requirements, and Group Requirements), College Requirements, a teaching major, a teaching minor, and a sequence of professional education courses including one semester of pre-student teaching and one semester of student teaching. The policy of the College of Education is to provide teaching experiences in both an urban and a suburban setting.

Admission to the College of Education

Admission to the College of Education at Wayne State University is based on two levels. If granted admission to Wayne State University, students that indicated their intent to pursue a program in the College of Education on the application for undergraduate admission are admitted directly to Level 1. Students at this level are working to fulfill University General Education requirements, College of Education requirements, and any additional requirements for admission to Level 2. Students at Level 1 also begin taking courses in their teaching major and minor.

Admission to Level 2 requires a separate application, available in room 469 of the College of Education or online at:

<http://coe.wayne.edu/as/admission-undergraduate.php>

A student does not complete a Level 2 application until all Level 2 requirements have been fulfilled. Admission to Level 2 is not competitive: students that meet all requirements will be admitted. Students in Level 2 have access to the Professional Education Sequence, which may be completed in two years. Most students begin Level 2 during the junior year.

University General Education requirements exist in two categories: Competency Requirements and Group Requirements. Transfer credits awarded at Wayne State University are equal to the number of credits awarded at the transferring institution. Unless otherwise noted, please select one course to fulfill each requirement. If two courses are listed together with a “+” sign, then both courses are required to fulfill the single requirement.

In meeting Group Requirements, please note that a given Wayne State University subject area code (eg., ANT, HIS, PS, etc.) may not be used more than twice, that a course must be at least three semester hours to meet the requirement, and that courses may not be taken on a pass/fail basis.

Important Information for Transfer Students

A maximum of sixty-four (64) transferable credit hours earned at a two-year degree-granting institution may be applied toward a Wayne State University degree, though all credits that transfer will be listed on the Wayne State University student record.

This transfer plan shows all available course options for transfer students. It may not be necessary or advisable to complete all of the course work outlined in this plan before transferring to Wayne State University. Doing so could result in unnecessary time and money spent repeating courses that exceed the maximum of sixty-four (64) transferable credits.

It is the responsibility of the student to seek guidance from an academic advisor in the College of Education at Wayne State University in order to understand the most advantageous use of transferred credit hours in fulfilling Wayne State University degree requirements.
