Little Priest Tribal College College of Business Administration

Transfer Guide for Little Priest Tribal College, UNL College of Business Administration. Guide revised Spring 2012. CONFIRM YOUR COURSE SELECTIONS WITH A UNL COLLEGE ADVISER!

Students anticipating transferring to UNL's College of Business Administration may use this guide for selecting Little Priest Tribal College courses. Check the UNL Bulletin <http://bulletin.unl.edu/undergraduate/index.shtml> for information about specific curriculum requirements or check the website at the College of Business Administration (<http://www.cba.unl.edu/>). This guide incorporates the degree requirements as stated in the University Bulletin. Degree requirements may change each academic year. Students interested in transferring to UNL should communicate regularly with a UNL academic adviser to confirm course selections. To contact an academic adviser in the College of Business Administration Advising Office call (402-472-2310). To facilitate the transfer of credit, all grades should be a "C" or higher. The University of Nebraska - Lincoln applies a maximum of 66 semester hours or 99 quarter hours in transfer from community colleges toward a UNL degree.

IMPORTANT CHANGE: Beginning Fall Semester 2012 UNL will apply 60 semester hours or 90 quarter hours from community colleges toward a UNL degree.

This guide is intended to assist UNL prospective and current students in selecting courses that will transfer into degrees offered by the UNL College of Business Administration. The guide does not incorporate all possible degree requirements as some general education and business requirements MUST be completed at UNL. Students completing a related associate's degree at the community college should be aware that the guide may not perfectly parallel the associate degree. Please contact an academic adviser in the College of Business Administration for further information. Our telephone number is (402) 472-2310. Note: The Actuarial Science and Agribusiness majors vary in general requirements and general business requirements. Refer to the UNL Bulletin for more information about these majors. This document shows the courses that most easily transfer from this community college to specific requirements in specific programs at UNL. There are many other courses that meet these requirements if you prefer to take them at UNL. There may also be other courses at your institution that will fill requirements at UNL. Please consult the full transfer guide and speak with a UNL adviser to determine its proper placement. NOTE: The College of Business Administration requires 12 semester hours of 300-level courses. Students should plan to complete this requirement at UNL.

Beginning Fall 2012, UNL's transfer policies will change. For courses completed BEFORE August 20, 2012 old transfer policies will continue to apply. For courses complete on or after August 20, 2012, transfer courses from 2-year or international institutions as equivalent to 300 or 400 level business courses will no longer be accepted. Business courses completed before August 20, 2012 will continue to be accepted with a grade of "C" or better. Business courses completed on or after August 20, 2012 and transferred from institutions not accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) must have a grade of "B" or better to apply to a College of Business Administration degree.

Achievement-Centered Education (ACE) is the UNL general education curriculum. Students must complete at least one 3 hour course to meet the ACE outcome described below. A course may only apply to one outcome. Following is a list of ACE courses recommended for students planning on majoring in this UNL college. The transfer guides vary significantly by UNL college. Thus students considering more than one major should consult the guides for all of the colleges they are considering. A course may apply to only one ACE outcome. The UNL course numbers are in [] behind the credit hours:

ACE 1 (Complete 3 semester hours ENGLISH COMPOSITION and an additional 3 semester hours JGEN 220-Business Communication Strategy): Write texts, in various forms, with an identified purpose, that respond to specific audience needs, incorporate research or existing knowledge, and use applicable documentation and appropriate conventions of format and structure.
