

ARTICULATION AGREEMENT

Between

ATLANTIC CAPE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

And

TEMPLE UNIVERSITY of the Commonwealth System of Higher Education

For the

FOX SCHOOL OF BUSINESS AND MANAGEMENT

Atlantic Cape Community College (ACCC) and Temple University (Temple) enter into this agreement in order to facilitate the admission of students, who have earned the Associate in Science Degree in Business Administration at ACCC, into the Bachelors of Business Administration program of the Fox School of Business and Management at Temple University.

This agreement guarantees admission to Temple, with third year status and with equal standing with other Temple students, to Atlantic Cape Community College graduates who have earned the Associate in Science Degree in Business Administration under the conditions specified below. A full-time student thus admitted will be able to complete the requirements for the Bachelors of Business Administration degree at Temple within four regular semesters as long as they successfully pass the remaining requirements and sequence their Temple course work appropriately. It is strongly recommended that ACCC students meet with a Temple, Fox School of Business and Management adviser at least one semester prior to transferring to discuss the proper sequencing of coursework. Specialized programs, including International Business Administration and Entrepreneurship, may require more than four regular semesters to complete.

Students who complete the ACCC curriculum specified in the “required course equivalencies” section of this agreement are guaranteed the transfer credit for courses indicated in that section. Courses not listed there, but brought into Temple in transfer by a student covered by this agreement, will be granted credit according to standard Temple-ACCC equivalencies for the Fox School of Business and Management.

Once at Temple, students who transfer under the terms of this agreement are responsible for meeting requirements in their major field of study, and any other curricular requirements applying to all Temple students, that were in effect at Temple at the time of their admittance to Temple University. These students will abide by the policies and procedures, and any revisions there of, that apply to all Temple students.

Students who apply to Temple without an Associate in Science Degree in Business Administration will not be covered by this agreement. For the non-ACCC graduates, Temple University shall determine appropriate transfer of credit and admission on an individual basis.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ADMISSION TO TEMPLE

1. completion of the Associate in Science Degree in Business Administration at ACCC;
2. meeting the same dates for application, payment of fees and other registration requirements that apply to other entering students at Temple University;
3. enrollment at Temple University within two years after ACCC graduation under the terms of this agreement; and
4. achieving a minimum grade point average of 2.3 at ACCC; with the exception of students planning to transfer into the International Business Administration or Entrepreneurship majors who are required to have a minimum grade point average of 3.00 at ACCC in accordance with the requirements for native Temple students.

Developmental courses taken at ACCC do not transfer to Temple. In addition, courses for which a grade below C was received, do not transfer to Temple. ACCC students who transfer will be responsible for meeting course requirements as outlined in this agreement and University and major requirements in place at Temple University at the date of their enrollment at Temple University.

Students transferring under this agreement will have junior status at Temple University and will be eligible for housing and financial aid on the same basis as other Temple University students.

JOINT RESPONSIBILITIES FOR MAINTENANCE OF THIS AGREEMENT

The Articulation Coordinator in Student Development at ACCC will maintain and distribute information about the current form of this agreement, and any changes relevant to it, to appropriate ACCC students, counselors, advisers, administration, and faculty.

Temple University's Fox School of Business and Management will keep appropriate Temple offices and staff (including the Provost's office and Admission's office) informed of this agreement, and any modifications thereto, and will be responsible for distributing information concerning any changes.

Both institutions will encourage ACCC students to meet with representatives of Temple University to discuss issues related to admissions and financial aid well in advance of their expected date of entry.

Faculty from each institution teaching in the curriculum for which this agreement has been developed will be encouraged to meet at least once annually to discuss issues of curriculum and student development.

Temple University and ACCC will collaborate on research activities that will help assess the effectiveness of this transfer program in meeting the needs of students transferring from ACCC to Temple University.

REVISION, RENEWAL AND TERMINATION OF THIS AGREEMENT

The Dean's Office of Temple's Fox School of Business and Management, and the Articulation Coordinator in Student Development at ACCC, are responsible for identifying, and communicating to each other, changes in their respective courses, requirements, or policies that affect this agreement.

This agreement will be in effect as of the Fall 2003 semester, will be reviewed annually by the Dean's Office of Temple's Fox School of Business and Management and the Articulation Coordinator in Student Development at ACCC, and will automatically be renewed until superseded by a new agreement or formally terminated. Revisions in the course equivalency lists may be made with the verbal consent of the representatives of the two schools; major revisions to this agreement require their signatures. Either institution may terminate this agreement at any time by written notice at least one year in advance of the effective date of termination. Should this agreement be terminated, it is understood that the termination will not apply to students already accepted to Temple University under the terms of this agreement, but not yet enrolled in classes at Temple.

ACCC and Temple University understand that they shall act in an independent capacity in the performance of this agreement, and shall not be considered as employees, agents, affiliates, or subsidiaries of each other.

Neither Temple nor ACCC have the right to bind nor obligate one another in any manner inconsistent with or unrelated to this agreement. This agreement is governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
