

Metropolitan College of New York (MCNY) Borough of Manhattan Community College (BMCC) Articulation Agreement

Sending College: Borough of Manhattan Community College

Department: Liberal Arts

Program: Liberal Arts

Degree: Associate in Arts (AA)

Receiving College: Metropolitan College of New York

Department: Audrey Cohen School for Human Services & Education

Program: American Urban Studies

Degree: Bachelor of Arts

Metropolitan College of New York Bachelor of Arts in American Urban Studies requires completion of 128 credits with a 2.0 cumulative grade point average. A minimum GPA of 2.0 from BMCC is required for admission under this articulation agreement. It allows qualified graduates of Borough of Manhattan Community College to receive the equivalent of four (4) semesters of transfer credit at MCNY toward the Bachelor of Arts degree. Students with an earned BMCC Associate in Arts meeting the above criteria will be eligible to enter directly into their fifth semester at MCNY. An additional 64 credits are required to earn the MCNY Bachelor of Arts in American Urban Studies degree which can be completed in a minimum of one year and four months as full-time students. Students are eligible to initially enroll with MCNY for any one of the three semesters [Spring, Summer or Fall]. All applicants to MCNY must complete all required admissions documents as set forth by the Admissions Office from time to time.

BMCC students who successfully matriculate through MCNY's Bachelor of Arts in American Urban Studies program will be eligible to apply to any of MCNY's graduate level programs which, at the time of this agreement, includes: Master of Public Administration (MPA) in Public Affairs and Administration, MPA in Emergency and Disaster Management, Master of Business Administration (MBA) in General Management, MBA in Media Management, MBA in Financial Services, and the Master of Science in Childhood Education. Normal admissions requirements will apply.

The Borough of Manhattan Community College course curriculum will be reviewed as part of periodic program reviews in order to keep the articulation agreement current. In addition, this agreement will be amended as necessary in an effort to allow for any curricular changes in the Metropolitan College of New York American Urban Studies program and maintain the transfer terms outlined.

As part of the outcomes assessment, Metropolitan College of New York will track the number of students admitted under this articulation agreement, the number of students who complete the requirements for a baccalaureate and the number of semesters from entrance to graduation. Metropolitan College of New York will provide this information to Borough of Manhattan Community College on a yearly basis.

Metropolitan College of New York and Borough of Manhattan Community College will publicize information regarding this articulation agreement in their respective college catalogs, through their Admissions Offices, as part of transfer advisement and on the website. It is understood that all other promotional activities related to this agreement cannot be conducted without prior written approval of both the Chief Academic Officer of Metropolitan College of New York and the Chief Academic Officer of Borough of Manhattan Community College.

All BMCC Graduates that enroll with MCNY through the articulation program would qualify for $1,000 a MCNY Transfer Grant each semester over the course of four (4) full-time [16 credit] semesters. In addition to this aid, MCNY will review the students' Expected Family Contribution (EFC) and may offer additional institutional aid. Students may apply for other scholarships, grants and loans for which they qualify for. MCNY students coming from BMCC under this articulation agreement that are continuously enrolled will be eligible for a fixed tuition rate in accordance with MCNY's tuition guarantee policy, as amended from time to time.

This agreement will be formally effective when both institutions have agreed to it by signatures of their Chief Academic Officers and Deans and shall remain in effect until terminated by either institution, provided fifteen (15) weeks advance notice of termination has been given.
