

Honors Articulation Agreement Georgia State University and Georgia Perimeter College

The purpose of this agreement is to strengthen the academic connections between Georgia State University and Georgia Perimeter College and especially between the Georgia Perimeter College Honors Program and the Honors Program at Georgia State University to encourage students to transfer to Georgia State University. This agreement recognizes the academic achievement of students in the Georgia Perimeter College Honors Program and provides a smooth and successful transition for them into the Georgia State University Honors Program.

Automatic Admission to Georgia State University Honors Program

Students who earn an Honors Program Degree from Georgia Perimeter College with a minimum GPA of 3.50 may be accepted into the Georgia State University Honors Program upon recommendation by the Georgia Perimeter College Honors Program Director. Their Georgia Perimeter College Honors course work will be considered as having satisfied all freshman and sophomore Honors requirements at Georgia State University, and the students will have junior standing at Georgia State University. Students must apply for admission to the Georgia State University Honors Program by the second semester of their sophomore year at Georgia Perimeter College.

Out-of-state and international Georgia Perimeter College graduates admitted to the Georgia State University Honors Program may be eligible for the Campus Atlanta Scholarship; these students and in-state students will also be eligible once admitted for the scholarships and awards offered to upper-division students in the Georgia State University Honors Program. Consult the Honors Program website (www.GeorgiaStateUniversity.edu/honors) for a listing of these awards.

Summary

Both institutions agree to share information on Honors Program updates, changes, and all processes relative to this agreement. A review of this Agreement to evaluate any changes in competencies, content, or standards will occur every year in March. All modifications to this agreement must be made in writing.

This Honors Articulation Agreement shall be filed with the Enrollment and Admissions Offices, with the Honors Directors, with the Office of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs at Georgia State University, and with the Vice President for Academic Affairs at Georgia Perimeter College.

This Agreement shall commence on January 1, 2009, with the intent to admit the first students in August 2009 or as soon thereafter as administratively possible, and it shall be in effect until modified or terminated in writing. This Agreement may be terminated at any time by the authorities of either Georgia State University or Georgia Perimeter College upon sufficient notice to allow the completion of any given applicant cycle. No further admission shall be made under this Honors Articulation Agreement after such notice is given, but students already admitted into Georgia State University and its Honors Program at the time of such notice will be allowed to complete their programs of study at Georgia State University.
