

What is required to apply to LIU?

You must submit a completed application form along with your official high school transcripts and SAT scores. Transfers students must submit official transcripts from every college attended. Transfer students with less than 24 transferable must also submit official high school transcripts. Graduate students must submit all required documents as requested by their respective department of interest.

What are Long Island University's deadlines?

Long Island University has rolling admissions for most programs. However, certain programs, such as (list programs here) have their own set deadline. The list of deadlines for the current year may be found here (link to page with deadlines).

What is the minimum high school average I need to get in?

Most programs require a H.S. average of at least 75, with a few requiring and 80 or above. The Pharmacy program requires an average of at least an 85

What is the minimum SAT score?

SAT scores are not required for most majors. However, there is a minimum requirement of 1000 combined score for Health Professions.

Does Long Island University accept transfer credits? AP? CLEP? College NOW?

The Brooklyn campus accepts transfer credits with the grade C and above from all SUNY and CUNY institutions and colleges and universities with accreditation from the following regional accrediting associations:

- Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools
- North Central Association of Colleges and Schools
- New England Association of Schools and Colleges, Inc./Commission on Institutes of Higher Education
- Northwest Association of Schools and Colleges
- Southern Association of Colleges and Schools/ Commission on Colleges
- Western Association of Schools and Colleges

The university also accepts AP Exam grades 3, 4, and 5 for credit, CLEP exam grades 50 and above for credit (check www.collegeboard.com for credit granting scores for specific exams), and College NOW courses grades C or better.

What can you tell me about the dormitories/residence life?

The Richard L. Conolly Hall provides housing for approximately 600 students. Room styles vary; there are standard, suites and apartments. For housing costs please contact the Office of Residence Life at 718-488-1046. For more questions about the residence hall see Frequently Asked Questions about the Residence Hall.

Where is Long Island University? How do I get there?

Long Island University is located in Downtown Brooklyn, on Dekalb Ave and Flatbush Ave. One can get to the University by car, subway and bus. Directions can be found here.

Are scholarships available?

LIU does offer scholarships based on academic excellence. Please be advised if a student partially meets the standards, it is not automatic that they will receive a particular scholarship. Financial Aid is also available. More information can be found here.

What is the current tuition at LIU?

For the Fall 2006 semester, tuition is current $729 per credit. The tuition for the Arnold and Marie Schwartz College of Pharmacy and Health Services is a flat rate of $11,685 for years 1 and 2; $13,726 for years 3-6.