

Transfer Credit Policy

Transfer credits are evaluated on a course-by-course basis. Only courses with a grade of “C” or better will be approved for transfer, however, courses that were graded a C- minus, and carried two quality points, are acceptable. A course for which no credit is given at the original institution cannot be transferred for credit at Saint Francis University; developmental or remedial courses are not transferrable.